

Introduction to International Arbitration

July 2024

2024 VIRTUAL TRAINING PROGRAMME COURSE INFORMATION SHEET

What is the aim of the course?

The course is aimed at providing candidates with an understanding of the general principles of international (i.e. non-domestic) arbitration and its relationship to other dispute resolution processes. The course will introduce candidates to the legal framework of, and good practice and procedure in, international arbitration.

The course is intended for candidates who are new to the field of international arbitration, wish to learn more about international arbitration and its benefits to users, or wish to become Associate members of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (Ciarb). Ciarb membership provides a world-class qualification demonstrating excellence in ADR. Becoming an Associate member is a step through Ciarb's world-renowned training programme to become a Ciarb Member.

What is covered within the syllabus?

Through private study and virtual lectures and tutorials, candidates will learn and gain knowledge of:

- Comparison of dispute resolution procedures
- Fundamental principles of the international arbitration process
- The UNCITRAL Model Law and Arbitration Rules
- Arbitration rules: time-limited, institutional, industry standards, industry schemes and ad hoc agreements
- Arbitration procedures: documents only and oral hearings
- The legal framework: the importance of the seat, the New York Convention, procedural laws and procedural rules
- The arbitration agreement, commencement of the arbitration and an arbitrator's jurisdiction and powers
- The arbitration process: obligations of the tribunal, responsibilities and obligations of the parties
- Managing the arbitration process: communications, preliminary meeting, interlocutory matters, dealing with factual and opinion evidence and disclosure of documents including introduction to the IBA Guidelines
- Presenting the claim and the defence: alternative methods
- Procedure at a typical hearing, including contrasting common and civil law jurisdictions
- Costs and interest: alternative approaches in different jurisdictions
- Essentials of an enforceable award

What are the learning outcomes?

On successful completion of this course, candidates will be able to:

- Understand the background to international arbitration.
- Describe the process and procedure of international arbitration.
- Understand international arbitration in the context of other forms of dispute resolution.

What are the entry requirements?

There are no pre-requisite academic or experience entry requirements for this course other than English language competence since training and assessment are carried out in English. It is therefore essential that candidates are proficient in both written and spoken English.

What is the enrolment process?

To enrol on the course, submit the completed Registration Form to the Course Administrator at info@ciarbcaribbean.org NO LATER THAN 1 JULY 2024. Upon successful registration on the course, candidates will receive confirmation that they are provisionally booked on the course, subject to full payment of the course fee, and instructions on how to pay the fee by wire transfer to the Ciarb Caribbean Branch London Bank Account. Wire transfer is the only method of payment.

Upon payment of the fee, registration will be confirmed. Candidates will receive joining instructions, course materials and the course schedule by email but not earlier than the above closing date for registration.

What is the course fee and what does it include?

The course fee is US$300.00 or its equivalent in GB£ at the time of invoicing. The fee includes registration, study materials, access to virtual classrooms, tuition and assessment. Ciarb Student members are entitled to a 10% discount.

How is the course delivered?

The course is delivered with a combination of private study and virtual lectures and tutorials. Private study includes reading course materials and undertaking self-assessment tasks in the candidates' own time. Virtual lectures and tutorials involve the candidates attending two half-day virtual classrooms via the Zoom online platform on Tuesday, 16 July and Thursday, 18 July 2024 starting at 9:00 am (Eastern Caribbean Time).

How will candidates be assessed?

Candidates will be assessed on the basis of an online multiple-choice test accessed via LearnADR, Ciarb's online learning platform from 19 July 2024 and available for 28 days from that date. Prior to the start date of the assessment period candidates will receive an email with their username and password.

Candidates will be allowed three attempts to complete the test. Each attempt started must be completed within 7 days of its start. All attempts must be completed and submitted within the 28-day assessment period. Candidates must achieve a minimum overall mark of 55% to pass the course. Results are made available to candidates immediately upon completion of the assessment.

On successful completion, candidates will be awarded a Certificate of Assessment, will be eligible to apply for Associate grade membership of Ciarb and take advantage of a range of educational and professional benefits and may progress onto the Module 1 course in International Arbitration (registration for this course closes on 1 August 2024).

What is Ciarb's policy on cancellation?

Ciarb reserves the right to cancel the course or change the tutors or the dates or the content of the programme. Candidates will be provided with adequate notice of any cancellation or changes. If Ciarb cancels the course, candidates will be provided with a full refund of any fees paid or the opportunity to transfer their registration to the next course if available.

Should a candidate wish to cancel his or her confirmed registration of a course, notification must be received by email, prior to the start of the course, to info@ciarbcaribbean.org. Cancellation charges will apply.
